MR. PHILIP KENNEDY, Cincinnati, Ohio, labor-management lawyer, in his recent lecture on the Weakness in Labor Legislation, criticized the National Labor Relations Act. Mr. Kennedy was the second speaker on the Commerce Club Lecture Series. He also gave his views regarding the way in which he thought the act could be improved. Concerning the right to strike he said, "Individual rights must be subjected to the social good." When society is harmed by a strike, the strike must cease. Another defect in the law, according to the speaker, was the deduction of dues equivalent to union dues from the check of a non-union laborer.

Chem Major Brags Of Great Endurance Spent 7 Years Here

More of a permanent fixture than a transient student like the rest of us here at St. Joe is Aubrey Joseph Serewicz, presently of Valparaiso, Ind.

Aubrey started things off the right way on November 14, 1926, in Chicago. He attended St. Viator's elementary school there for seven years before he and the family moved to Valpo.

In September, 1940, Aubrey came to St. Joe and enrolled in the academy; he has been here ever since that time. If all goes as expected, he will be graduated from the college next June.

While yet in high school Aubrey distinguished himself with his experiments in chemistry. However, some doubt exists as to the quality of this distinction. Contrary to popular belief, Aubrey had no intentions of pioneering the atom bomb when he concocted a mixture which reacted considerably sooner and faster than he had intended for it to do. The resulting explosion blackened his face and burned his hair, but luckily he suffered no serious injury.

Transfers To College

Following high school Aubrey moved over to the college in February, 1944. He is majoring in chemistry and minoring in philosophy and mathematics. At work on his thesis, Aubrey is concentrating upon "The Properties, Polymerization, and Purification of the Butylchlorosilanes" in partial fulfillment of the requirements for a BS degree.

During his seven-year stay at St. Joe, Aubrey was a member of the Farley Stamp Club and Raleigh Club; for one year he was vice-president of both the Albertus Magnus Society and Columbian Literary Society. He likewise served as cartoonist for STUFF for one year.

After leaving St. Joe, Aubrey intends to go to a graduate school.

Welfare Director Releases List of Repeat Exercises

Schedule for the students' retreat, which will begin this evening and close Sunday morning, has been released by the Rev. Edward A. Maziarz, c.p.p.s., director of student welfare. The schedule is as follows:

Friday
8:30 p. m.—Conference
Saturday
7:00 a. m.—Mass
9:00 a. m.—Conference
10:30 a. m.—Conference and Stations of the Cross
11:30 a. m.—1:30 p. m.—Recreation
1:30 p. m.—Conference
3:30 p. m.—Rosary
4:30 p. m.—Conference
6:45 p. m.—Benediction
8:30 p. m.—Conference
Sunday
8:00 a. m.—Closing Conference and Mass

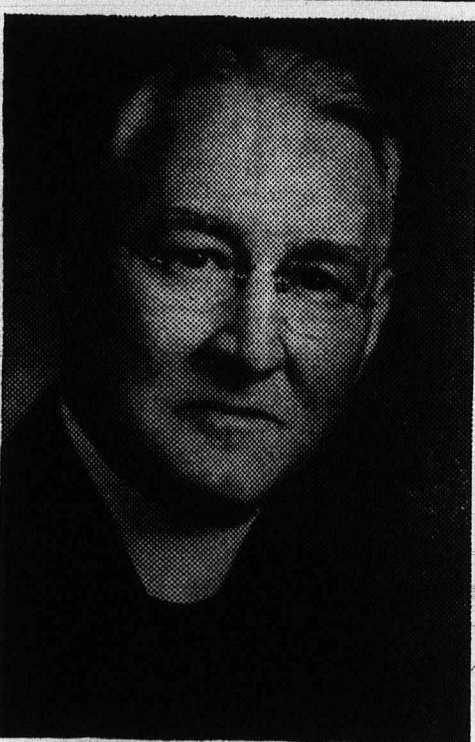

All students are obliged to attend each exercise in the main chapel, Father Maziarz said. Silence will be kept, and radios will not be played during the retreat; the Raleigh Club will not be open. Also, confessions will be heard immediately following each conference.

Directing the retreat will be the Rev. John Wittstock of Detroit. Father Wittstock is the representative of the Archdiocese of Detroit at the juvenile court. He is currently giving a series of talks in Detroit.

Plans For Rec Center Sent To Works Board

Specifications for a government-surplus building, sent to the Federal Works Agency, were approved by this agency Tuesday, Feb. 18, by telegram. The government will furnish a one-story frame building 51' x 144', with a total area of 7,344 square feet.

To be erected southwest of the fieldhouse, the structure will be used for recreational purposes primarily. It may house the J Cafe. It will be dismantled at the Sangamon Ordnance Plant, Illiopolis, Ill. shipped, and reassembled on the campus without cost to the college except for architect's fees. All fixtures come with the building.

St. Joseph's students who live in Rensselaer will find that they have a new pastor at St. Augustine's Church, Sunday. He is the Rev. George Pax, a first cousin of the Rev. Walter Pax, dean of the college.

Father Pax was graduated from St. Joseph's in 1911. He was ordained in 1917. Among his appointments was that of chaplain in the United States Army during World War I and Superior of the Mission House at Charlottesville, Va. Until Tuesday, Father Pax was pastor of St. Anthony's Church, Padua, Ohio.

Sanguinist Club Men Meet at Notre Dame For NSO Discussion

John Lynch, of Hammond, Ind., and Raymond Gatzka, of Flint, Mich., will travel to the University of Notre Dame Sunday afternoon to confer with delegates there on the forthcoming Indiana regional meeting of the National Students Organization.

This regional meeting will be held March 15 at Purdue University. Archbishop Cushing, D.D., through the Rev. John Birmingham, national chaplain of the National Federation of Catholic College Students, has approved of Catholics participating in the NSO at least during its formation period.

At the sectional meeting of the Sanguinist Club it was announced that the constitution of the club has been written and approved. Leaders of the four cells were also announced. They are: Francis Meehan of Fort Wayne, Ind., in Noll Hall; William McClintock of Fort Wayne, Ind., in Drexel Hall; Robert Horky of Chicago, Ill., in Gaspar Hall; and Thomas Jordan of Indianapolis, Ind., in Seifert Hall.

At the same meeting John Lynch was appointed sectional leader. The first copy of the March issue of the Sanguinist Bulletin was published this week.

Government Adds Tax Cuts For Disabled War Veterans

Releases from the Veterans Administration Contact Office, Post Office Building, Lafayette, Ind., give information regarding state tax exemptions for disabled veterans. News was also received concerning changes in the working schedule of the Contact Office.

According to the release, an honorably discharged veteran with a ten-percent, or greater, disability rating is entitled to an additional exemption of $1,000 on all taxable property, real or personal. Soldiers and sailors who receive disability compensation for service-connected injuries are exempt from paying poll taxes also.

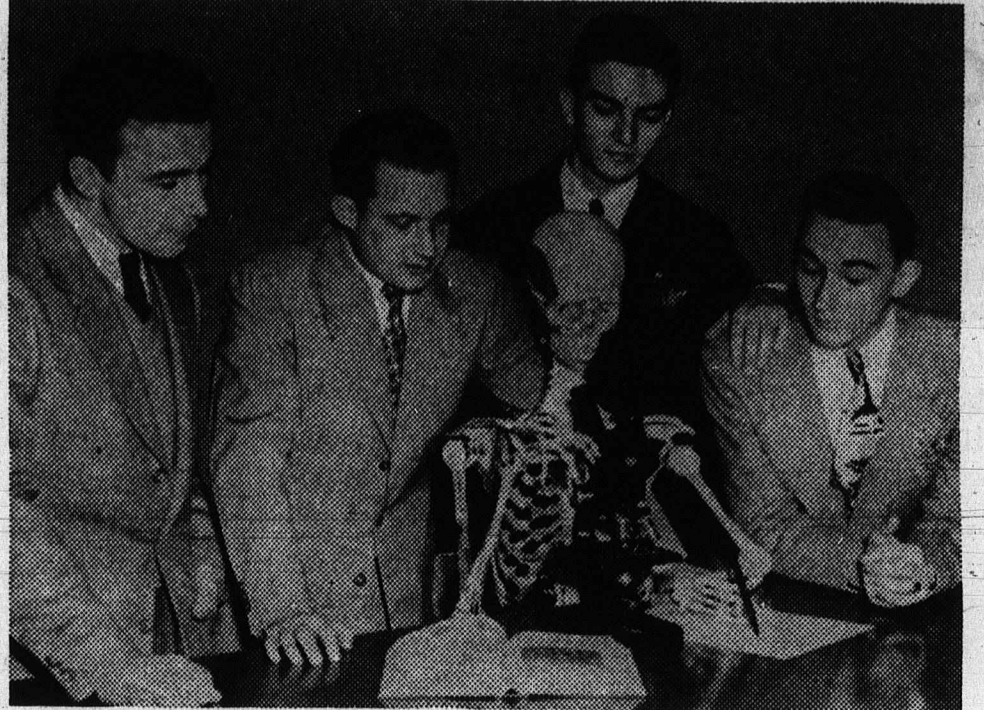

To take advantage of these exemptions the veteran must file with the county auditor of the county in which he resides proof that he is eligible for these benefits. This must be done between March 1 and the first Monday in May.

Concerning the hours of the Contact Office, a presidential order necessitated closing the office on Saturdays hereafter. Effective March 1, hours of the office are from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., Monday through Friday.

Veterans on the campus who desire assistance in matters administered by the VA are urged to contact Mr. H. R. Pitts, who will be at the college from 1 to 3 next Wednesday afternoon.

Drexel Gets Telephone

No longer will the residents of Drexel Hall have to walk to the administration building to make a phone call. For the past few days workmen have been busy installing a public telephone. It is expected to be completed by the end of the week.

Sudy Band Engaged For Annual Prom

John Lucas, committee director of music and entertainment for the prom, has received definite confirmation that Joe Sudy and his orchestra will play here May 10. Mr. Sudy is currently being featured in the Walnut Room of the Bismark Hotel in Chicago.

Sudy, one of the few orchestra leaders playing a violin, was becoming very well-known in the Middle West before the war. Called to military service he went in as a naval officer.

Arrangements have been made with a Chicago rental agency by the spring prom committee to have tuxedos for those dance-goers that need them. Measurements will be taken a few weeks before May 10, date of the dance. Rentals will cost $7.50 plus a dollar deposit.

Although all the plans are not completed, the junior class and the Monogram Club, who are sponsoring the dance, have estimated that the bids will be approximately $5.50.

Bulletin

Fire of undetermined origin broke out in the room of the Rev. Urban Siegrist, c.p.p.s., about eight o'clock this Thursday morning while he was at breakfast. Students discovered the blaze and fought it with chemical extinguishers until the Rensselaer volunteer firemen arrived and extinguished it. The fire was confined to this one room. The room was gutted.

Frosh Leads On Honor List With 3.0 Card

The following are the top ranking students in their respective classes as revealed by the first semester examinations:

Freshmen
Bican, John M.	3.00
Malangoni, Roland G.	2.89
Burns, Robert T.	2.83
Koval, Edward J.	2.83
Vonder Haar, Thomas E.	2.83
Sophomores
Bauer, Francis T.	2.68
Gatzka, Raymond E.	2.67
Jackson, William E.	2.53
Juniors
Buchman, William T.	2.50
Wibblesman, Virgil A.	2.41
Banet, Paul H.	2.25
Seniors
Kauffman, Henry M.	2.88
Farrell, Charles W.	2.74
Scheiber, Thomas J.	2.67
Freshman, c.p.p.s.
Sutter, Cyril R.	2.53
DeBrosse, Louis C.	2.47

Sophomores, c.p.p.s.
Grever, Richard A.	2.68
Royle, John E.	2.53
Vollmer, Anthony L.	2.42

ST. JOSEPH has stood guard over the entrance of the college, which is under his patronage, since 1891, when the first half of the Administration Building was completed. Two years later the structure was increased to twice its former size. Mary our Mother took her proper place in the niche above the second front entrance.

Check-up Time Again Fight Another War

The hourglass of our life continues ever onward, inverting and inverting again, indefinitely, until our sands of time are no more. In an era characterized by a pace which seems to be becoming so terrifically fast that it is rapidly flying out of control, even these sands appear to be thinning out and falling through the constriction at a swifter rate.

Thought not capable of stopping completely the sands, we can, in a sense, topple the hourglass onto its side and stay their progress for a little while. This is one of the purposes of the students' retreat which begins this evening. It is a sort of temporary retirement from the usual active affairs of the ordinary day; it is a time of recollection, meditation, prayer.

As we drive ourselves figuratively into the pits for a general overhaul and check-up, we would do well to make certain that we are thoroughly prepared before re-entering the race; for many of us, this may be the last such check-up. It is an excellent opportunity to square things and begin again.

Each of us can make this retreat either a successful one or a glorified waste of time, as we will. What we put into it is just what we shall get out of it. As the retreat is, not spread out over a period of a week this year, much will be compressed within the relatively short space of a week end. If, by this token, we enter upon the week end with compressed fervor, we shall be certain of emerging from it feeling spiritually bolstered and morally uplifted.

Fill the Box, Please

At one time or another, each of us has seen the mail truck crammed to the endgates with mail that Brother Paul brings out to Collegeville twice daily from Rensselaer. Of the hundreds of letters which funnel through our post office every day, how many stamps are torn from the envelopes and deposited in the box provided in each residence hall?

These boxes have the word 'Stamps' stencilled unpretentiously across them. If we could but realize the urgency hidden behind that appeal, which is the underlying reason why that box is there, the success of the drive would be assured. There are missionaries all over the world who are dependent on these returns; they are returns which we are capable of rendering with as little physical effort as is required to crumple an envelope and toss it into the wastebasket. The stamps mean nothing to us; they represent food, supplies and medicine, even life itself, to others. Why shall they not have them then?

Forgetfulness, rather than indifference, is probably the reason why cooperation with the Dwenger Mission Unit has been lacking in this cause. Let this be a reminder. There is nothing that says that a person must know who his buddy is before he will help him out of a tight scrape.

Almost all of our faults are more pardonable than the methods we think up to hide them.
—La Rochefoucauld.

One test of good manners is being able to put up with bad ones.

—Patricia Perkins.

Fight Another War

Catholic writers of today are faced with the job of putting God back into the lives of men who have ruled Him out, even to the minutest of their affairs. They must do this with the tools of true literature; not the products of the so-called "honey and holy water school of writing," but tools of true literary value.

The difficulties arising from this job are intrinsic. Catholics are necessarily at war with this age, and Catholic writers must fight to rebuild with the same tools that have destroyed. These tools, therefore, must be wielded with a skill of no less temper.

These men know how frightening it is to try to bring God back into His rightful place of supremacy in the affairs of men. They are cognizant of the problems that wrack the world today—irreligion, and the social and political evils. These writers know the nature of man, made in the image of God, but tainted by original sin and so inclined to every phase of evil.

Catholic writers know the workings of Grace in the recesses of the soul. They know that they must strain their technical skill and cooperate with inspiration, alone productive of true literature, to bring men to work with this Grace and turn back to God.

The number of such men as these is small, and though they are few, they are practically unknown. Often they are scorned, for they offend over-tender sensibilities; often they are condemned, for their barbs strike too close to home. But these are the men who see man as he is in the world of today, who write about him, and try to give him that lift on the hard highway to heaven.

Pillars of Freedom . . . .

CHRISTIAN BOOKS

This is Interracial Week. This is the week that we should spend educating ourselves on the problems of interracial justice. This is the week that we should do something about interracial justice.

Racial prejudice is a question which has been pending for a matter of decades. Is anything being done about it? Something is being done about this question, but the whole-hearted cooperation of the people of the United States is lacking. If anything is to be accomplished, the whole-hearted cooperation is needed. We must educate ourselves how to render this cooperation, and how to rid ourselves of our pet peeves against other races. In this manner alone can we help interracial justice.

Reading and more reading is one of the best ways to rid ourselves of these prejudices. Above all, the Christian viewpoint is needed.

Some recent publications dealing with interracial justice are:

Eyes East by Most Rev. Paul Yu-Pin.
Street of the Half-Moon by Mabel Farnum.
The People of India by Kumar Goshal.
What the Negro Wants by Rayford W. Logan, ed.
Brothers Under the Skin by Carey McWilliams.

FOLLOWING THE FLICKERS

With Dick Causland

RITZ THEATRE—Mar. 9-11—Notorious—A theme of American espionage against the post-war plans of the Nazis underlies the romance and adventure in this drama. Cary Grant and Ingrid Bergman carry the major roles. Claude Rains, famous for his character roles, aids them admirably. The setting is in Brazil. Unobjectionable for adults.

Mar. 14-15—The Plainsman—Portraying one of the most colorful sections of American history, this film has such well-known names as Wild Bill Hickock, Buffalo Bill Cody, Calamity Jane, and General Custer. It has romance, intrigue, treachery, and an Indian attack of an ammunition train. Gary Cooper and Jean Arthur play the parts of Wild Bill and Calamity. No decency rating available.

PALACE THEATRE—Mar. 9-11—Lady in the Lake—A murder mystery that brings a newcomer, Audrey Totter, to the screen, and also employs a new type of photography. It is based on one of Raymond Chandler's best sellers. Robert Montgomery is the hero. In this new film technique the picture is viewed through the eyes of the leading character. No decency rating available.

Mar. 12-13—G. I. War Babies—A dramatic comedy co-starring Anna Lee and James Allison shows the trials and tribulations that beset English brides on their trip to the U. S. Placed in the objectionable in part list by the National Legion of Decency.

What Do You Think?

Here Are Views Of A Few

According to some of our connoisseurs of music, the playing gypsy, from the song of almost the same name, ought to die of exhaustion one of these mealtimes if it's run on the cafeteria record machine many more times. A portable radio in the cafeteria last week indicated that there was dissatisfaction with the music now being provided. So we asked, "If you were told to buy records for the cafeteria, what would you buy?"

Howard Magers, Tiffin, Ohio, freshman in business administration, thinks that a lot of the present records, excepting the waltzes, are too heavy for our purpose. "On the other hand, I'd buy albums which were not too swiny, either. I think Frankie Carle recordings, or some by the Ink Spots, would be fine."

"I'd like to hear more of the popular numbers which stay in circulation longer than the ordinary run of songs," voiced Charles Burkhardt, freshman from Detroit, Mich. "Songs like Stardust and Begin the Beguine would be just the thing. The selections we have now are all right except that playing them every day makes them lose their appeal."

John Burger, another freshman from Tiffin, is of the opinion that the present type of music is too much of one kind; there ought to be a variety of tempos to relieve the monotony. He intimated that he'd keep this in mind when he went to buy records.

"A little bit of everything," said Jim Wenzel, freshman from Elkhart, Ind. "There should be a variety of kinds of music to suit the individual tastes; of course, you can't please the fellows all the time. I'm beginning to think you just can't please them. As for records, I'll buy anything of Crosby's."

Julian Wlekinski, East Chicago freshman in business administration, is another Bing Crosby follower, only he'd add Vaughn Monroe to his list. "The music we have now is OK, but the same thing every day is too much. I'd buy Jolson records, too; they're not exactly examples of dinner music, but they would give the cafeteria a little life."

It appears that the trend swings toward the more popular songs of the day. It was generally agreed upon that the records played now were all right last September, but they should be traded for something a little different.

New Laundry Equipment Awaits Installation

Plans for remodeling the laundry are under contemplation, according to information received from the Rev. Francis Laudick, c.p.p.s., procurator for the college. New equipment for the laundry arrived some time ago.

Included in the new machinery are metal, mechanical dryers, pressing equipment and ringers.

I've been staying nights since I started my thesis.

Cubs-Bombers Thrill 3000 In Sectional Semi-final Tilt

Meeting in the semi-finals of the Jasper-Newton County sectional basketball tournament last Friday afternoon, the Puma Cubs lost 39-37 to the Rensselaer Bombers. Three thousand spectators went wild in the most exciting game of the three-day series.

Collier Quips

By Joe Collier

As the last car turned onto Route 53 Saturday night, it spelled finale to the 1947 high school sectional tournament held in the fieldhouse. Rensselaer won this sectional to the tune of "Caldonia" rather than the "Missouri Waltz."

We understand that the number of spectators ranged between 2500 and 3000 for each session. Upon first seeing that mass of cars in the baseball outfield, we thought surely someone must be giving away something for nothing.

Word was received that there was some kind of pool going around in which a person tried to pick the closest number of points that would be scored during all games of the tournament. According to our calculations, which may be wrong, the total number of points was 880.

Against St. Norbert's the Pumas fired away 66 times from the field and hit for 24.

Most people remember Whizzer White as one of the greatest backfield stars the gridiron has ever known. The Colorado University flash, and Oxford University law graduate, is now assistant to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

Doctors are urging Frank Leahy to discontinue coaching because of the recurrence of spinal arthritis.

From Bernie Ingersoll we receive this bit of information. George Connor, giant N. D. tackle, recently elected captain of the Irish for the '47 season, turned down a $12,000 pro offer.

They were green, but they ripened," read the slogan on the final Puma basketball game program. Statisticians might not call the Puma cagers' eight victories and eleven defeats a good season, but statistics give brutally unexplained facts. "He's new," a picture of Coach Art Cosgrove was captioned when the season opened. It might have added, "And He's Good." Out of a squad of inexperienced freshmen he fashioned a fighting quintet that exuded skill, poise, and self-assurance.

A fine example of true alumni spirit has been taking place this year without many people knowing about it. Charley Fromer '18-'23, of Attica, Ind., a distance of approximately sixty miles, attended every home game the Pumas played.

The Bombers, undefeated throughout the season, were easily tourney favorites; they breezed through their contest with Kentland 56-27. The Cubs, with a 12-5 season record, tripped Mt. Ayr 50-32 in their first tournament encounter.

Game time was called. Such tenseness prevailed that no one fully realized that a darkhorse was in action. The clock ticked away the first eight minutes, and the Cubs, led by Jerry Diver, were trailing the mighty Bombers by only one length. 11-10 the scoreboard read defiantly. Darkhorse goes into lead.

Blood pressure mounted as the second quarter advanced. Rounding the turn, the darkhorse galloped up beside, was away by a neck, was leading 24-20 as half the course was run.

It was tit for tat in the third lap on the track. In the stands it was hysteria. Losing a pace, regaining it, the darkhorse led 28-24 as the home stretch began. Race becomes a handicap.

Then the race became a handicap. Lead mount Diver was disqualified, and a substitute palfrey trotted onto the speedway.

The Bombers bomb. Forty seconds! They go out in front 38-35. Twenty seconds! Don Kasperan races up. It's 38-37—only a nose. Ten seconds! Johnny Raster tries a final surge. It is short, and the man with the flag lowers it only after the Bombers have had a free effort to increase their lead by a length.

Demons Set Pace In Bowling League

As of March 3, Bob Gannon's Demons lead the intramural bowling league with a .777 percentage. The Sharpies, led by Joe Collier, are in the second spot with a 6-3 record and a .666 percentage.

In their last appearance, the Demons really looked as if they're the team to beat. All three of their games topped the 700 mark, and Jack Darmody came in with a 570 series.

FEBRUARY FANTASIA BECOMES MARCH MADNESS — Twelve high school basketball teams from Jasper and Newton Counties battled through their sectional tournament in the St. Joseph's College Fieldhouse from Thursday, Feb. 27, to Saturday, March 1. An estimated 15,000 people attended one or more of the games. 2,500 season tickets were sold and from 100 to 300 single tickets for each of the five sessions beginning Thursday evening and ending Saturday night. The Rensselaer Bombers defeated Morocco 53-50 in the final game.

Pumas Finish Year With 60-52 Victory Over Green Knights

With a 60 to 52 victory over the Green Knights of St. Norbert's March 2, St. Joseph's finished the 1946-47 basketball season. Bill Krodel, Puma center, tapped the initial tip to Ed Alles. From Alles it went to Ray Patterson. From Patterson it went through the hoop for two points. Less than ten seconds had elapsed.

The Pumas continued to widen the margin for six minutes. Then the Knights started hitting, helped by some careless ball handling on the part of the home team.

With nine minutes remaining in the first half, the Green Knights had jumped into a 14 to 12 lead, which was increased to 18-12 in a hurry. Blahnick, center of the Knights, was the big gun as the visitors kept pouring points through the basket. The Pumas called time with a 12-point deficit.

There were only two minutes left in the first half when St. Joseph's, led by Patterson and Krodel, started a rally which cut St. Norbert's half-time lead to 29-26.

It took four minutes of the second half before the Pumas could overtake their opponents, and six before they forged into a lead which they later held.

Ray Patterson remained hot for the Pumas. Dick Collins also opened up. St. Joseph's tightened their defense. Showing a better brand of ball, they were never threatened seriously in the last five minutes of play.

Patterson led St. Joseph's scoring with 18 points; Dick Collins garnered six field goals and five free throws for a total of 17. Blahnick of St. Norbert's had high-scoring honors with 20 points.

Dopes, Scholars Lead I-M Play Boast Perfect 5-0 Records

The Dopes took over possession of first place in the Class A basketball league last week when they hung up two more victories. These wins were at the expense of the Stoics, 58-34, and the Swishers, 35-26.

Dave Terveer's Blind Bats, who are expected to give the Dopes the greatest struggle, bit the dust for the first time during the past week. The Shamrocks, with Captain Dan Breen and Bill Brennan leading the way, turned the trick 34-31 in a bitterly fought contest.

Behind their captain and the league's leading point maker, Dick Briede, the Radiators climbed into a tie for second place with the Bats by tripping the Wonders 40-35. Both have identical 3-1 records. Scholars on Top B Rung

Having won five consecutive contests, Roy Stone's Scholars have control of the top rung in the B league. Last week Stone's outfit moved a step nearer the title by topping one of its chief rivals, the Zorillas, 26-20. Stone himself led the way, contributing 11 important counters.

The Zorillas are deadlocked for the runner-up slot with Seifert's Indians who, after dropping their first start, have won four in a row. The Cage Trotters moved into contention by downing the Hungry Five, 35-28. These two teams are currently tied for third position in the race.

The Badgers and Dungeoneers in the B loop, and the Stoics in the A circuit, have yet to score a triumph. The Wonders in the A league and the Nemos in the junior circuit won for the first time last week.

Following are the standings of both leagues:

Dopes	5	0	Scholars	5	0

Cuemen Lead U.S. Collegiate Pool Stickmen

Local cuemen took top honors in the North Central Section in the straight rail billiards tourney held Feb. 26. The St. Joe score of 741 was far ahead of runner-up Purdue's 577. In fact, the Puma score topped all others in the nation.

Don Smith, with a score of 170, led the individual scorers in the North Central Section. Bob Reilly of St. Joe was second with 162.

Their success in this meet assured the St. Joe five an invitation to the National Collegiate Tournament which begins March 19.

No results are as yet available in the three-cushion billiards tournament held yesterday. This meet is the last to be played in the Collegiate Sectional Qualifying Tournament.

SCIENCE AND ART MEFT — Erected in 1914 with two wings extending back to form a large U this building, which faces east, developed into an L shape when the left wing was extended westward in 1936 to make room for more classrooms and science laboratories. During the past nine months a number of improvements have been made in the interior: Beneath the auditorium (middle section) are the library and stacks — two floors that were previously a basketball court. The reading room is in the left wing, and directly under it, more stacks and the book bindery. Top floor of the right wing is now used for scenery and other stage supplies. The music department remains where it was, on the second floor of this wing. Old Turner Hall and the A.A. store have gone to the fieldhouse, and in their place are a study hall and dormitory below, the Raleigh Club on the entire floor above.

President Begins Faculty Seminar

Faculty members of the Division of Philosophy and Religion will participate Monday in the first of four discussions pertaining to religious and philosophical matters. The Very Rev. Henry A. Lucks, c.p.p.s., president of the college, will open the seminar with a talk on "The Integration of the Curriculum."

Class Rings Arrive

Class rings, ordered early last semester by college juniors and seniors, have arrived at the college bookstore. Students who ordered them may secure the rings at the bookstore by paying the balance due on them.
